

There were thirty members and guest present.

The guests included Judith Phelps guest of Susan Voake and Suzie Fosburgh who presented her dolls.

Marge Hallyburton read her treasures report with an ending balance of $2,415.38.

The minutes of the November meeting were read by Jane Beaudry and a brief report of the December gathering was not read, but was filed, as there was no business discussed at this gathering.

Allison Vallieres gave us a report on our Christmas project, letting us know that there were three moms and ten children that benefited by our joint efforts along with the assistance of the Nellie Perkins Doll Club.

Ellen Rule needs, in written form, for the UFCD, information showing that the GSDC donated some Raggedy Ann dolls from our regional convention for the Christmas project.

We discussed wither or not we should have our doll show this year. Zendelle Bouchard made the motion to have it. Linda Svock seconded the motion and all were in favor. We further discussed the time and the place and the fact that the Nellie Perkins Club may also be involved.

We then voted to accept Joanne Libby as a member of the GSDC.

Dona Stripp appointed Peg Farwell, Marge Hallyburton and Linda Svok as the nominating committee to get a slate of officers together for the upcoming election of officers.

As a helper for the New Orleans convention we are donating a Louie Armstrong doll and book. The book is donated by Mr. Farwell.

Phyllis Goedeke's hand made Leeann outfits were won by :
Jane Benson and Charmaine Rose.

Zendelle Bouchard gave a wonderful and informative video presentation on convention souvenir dolls. After the presentation, I must say that I have added more dolls to my wish list.
